Worry-free Guide 2022

Quick questions answered regarding events and catering in the current climate to provide peace of mind when ordering.

1

Can we host an event at home inside?

Yes there are no government guidelines for home parties including dancing.

2

Can we host an event at home inside?

Yes we do have many chef's, waiters and bartenders to service our food and drink menus. If you want staff for your function the important thing is to secure in your function date and then we can make changes to numbers and menu closer to the time of the function.

3

Can we still make changes to our bookings closer to the time?

Yes - the payment is due 3 days before your event and you can change the numbers up until then.

4

What if I get covid before the event?

We will work with you to postpone and find a new date for your event.

5

Will you cancel my booking because your staff have covid?

No, we have multiple staff and back up's in place to ensure the company keeps running.

6

If I have a party at home and I want your staff to serve will they wear masks?

Yes all of our staff are fully vaccinated and will be wearing masks for the duration of the event

7

My venue has just cancelled my booking because their staff have covid, we want to move our party to our house, can you help us with the catering?

Yes absolutely we can always help with last minute catering, either staffed (based on availability) or delivered catering options.

8

I don't feel comfortable having staff in my house for our function, what can you offer?

We can offer a delivery of a range of different platters, we deliver 15 minutes before you want to eat with the food arriving hot ready to go.
